Personal Giving Record

The Clarke College Alumni Officers met in August, 1991, to discuss how alumni can help the College in the present crisis.

One of the two reasons for Clarke's loss of Regional Accreditation was "lack of a stable financial base." The alumni officers agreed that increasing the Endowment Fund would help attain a stable financial base.

A plan of consistent giving was formulated and adopted in the meeting. If 2,000 former students and friends of Clarke would pledge $20.00 a month for the year of 1992, the amount would be $480,000.00! The slogan "2000 for 20 in 92" was suggested for the Drive.

Will you be a "Pledger?"

"If you give to others, you will be given a full amount in return. It will be packed down, shaken together, and spilling over into your lap." Luke 6:38, CEV

To Clarke College:

Yes, I will be a "Pledger!"

After prayerfully considering this matter, I will send the following amount to help build the Clarke College Endowment Fund:
